The Guild of Church Musicians

The Guild was formed in 1888 and exists to encourage all musicians within the Church to attain the highest standards of music in the worship of Almighty God. Membership is open to anyone interested in church music and whilst the majority of members live in the UK the Guild has members living in all parts of the world. There is a separate branch of The Guild in Australia.

Questionnaire:

We are currently reviewing how the Guild can best serve the needs of its members, and potential members. You are invited to complete the questionnaire which is attached below and return it to the Guild's Warden.
